New subchapter V was added to the Bankruptcy Code in 2020 to create a more efficient and economical process for small business debtors to reorganize. But the benefits to a subchapter V debtor come at a cost to trade creditors. While subchapter V makes it easier for small business debtors, it also impacts the rights that creditors have versus a traditional chapter 11. In this webinar, Jason will explain and analyze various aspects of the new subchapter V.

Jason M. Torf is a bankruptcy and creditors' rights partner in the law firm Tucker Ellis LLP. Jason regularly represents clients in helping them solve their problems with troubled customers, both in bankruptcy proceedings and otherwise. He is a frequent speaker for various NACM and other credit groups to help them understand practical steps to utilize to minimize risk and maximize recovery when dealing with a financially troubled customer.

Join us for Jason's webinar on November 30, 2022, at 11:30 CST. Registration is complimentary to CFDD members; non-member fee is $10. Please RSVP to reserve your spot.
