Economy as Artful Dodger: How Much Longer?

We keep avoiding recession - does our luck run out in 2024 or does the consumer keep rescuing the economy? Where are we with inflation and the Fed's interest rate plans? What is happening geopolitically that resonates here and what about the elections? All these concerns and more!

Dr. Kuehl is a frequent speaker on economic issues in the US and globally. He speaks at conferences devoted to manufacturing, logistics, finance, credit, retail, accounting, and many others. He is also a commentator for the local and national media.

Reservation required – webinar link will be provided upon receipt of RSVP.
